Design Comes Together at NeoCon 2011

Green Hides and Tuohy debut partnership at summer trade fair

Greensboro, NC (JUNE 2011) – While it's been a long time in the works, it makes sense to announce a dynamic, new partnership between design companies at the NeoCon World's Trade Fair, which promotes itself as a place where design comes together. For 2011's show, leading quality leather producer Green Hides is pleased to announce their graded in program with Tuohy, a renowned high-design furniture manufacturer and recipient of a Best of NeoCon 2010 award.

Green Hides offers an expansive collection of upholstery leather that is ideal for Tuohy's line of sophisticated contract furniture. After careful examination, the companies have selected three of Green Hides products that are best suited for the applications required of Tuohy's elegant furniture.

Lena is a full-grain leather with even coloration that is made from a superior selection of cattle hides, offering a luxurious hand and smooth surface combined with a protective finish. Sierra is a top-grain leather with excellent coloration that has been gently buffed and grain enhanced to provide flawless grain structure throughout, as well as offering a clean surface that is ideal for high traffic interior applications. Lastly, EcoLife is an exceptionally eco-friendly, chromium free leather that provides outstanding quality with a particular focus on environmentally-minded manufacturing.

All of these options, along with Green Hides' range of over 300 stunning leather upholsteries, can be viewed at NeoCon in suite 11-114B.
